

L7 home learning ideas-Street detectives

This half term we are becoming street detectives looking at past, present and future! Our history theme is also WW2.

Try these challenges at home. 30 House points for each task completed!

Design Design & make a WW2 outfit. Make a model plane (spitfire), tank or gas mask.	Reading: Read to yourself, an adult or a friend for at least 10 minutes a day.	Science- Electricity: Create a list of everything in your house / on your street that uses electricity to run. How many can you find?
Topic: Use the internet to research: What were the roles of men and women in WW2? What was school like in WW2?	Art: Can you create a piece of art work inspired by the poppy? What are poppies for? 	Music Research and listen to WW2 music. How do they sound? How do they make you feel?
Topic: Choose some adults at home to interview. Record their answers. How has your area changed since you were young? How many houses have you lived in? What type of houses were they?	Writing: Write a postcard to a family member to tell them what it is like being evacuated.	Cooking: People in WW2 had to live on rations. Can you research and cook a simple WW2 meal and try to make it tasty?
