

How will developments impact our families?

Your child will be supported through a recovery curriculum that supports their wellbeing and builds upon their experiences of the UK Lockdown to enhance their learning.

Your child's curriculum will allow real world and work experiences with the use of the schools STEAM Street facility.

#team abbey will work collaboratively to allow your child an exceptional curriculum for life long learning.

How will developments impact our children?

Our children will be supported to get used to school again. We will talk about your experience of the UK lockdown and use this in your learning.

Our children will have the opportunity to work alongside their mainstream peers.

Our Children will work with employers to explore the different careers and employment opportunities using STEAM Street

How will developments impact our staff team?

Our staff will be supported, mentored and encouraged to work collaborate to deliver a recovery curriculum that responds to the needs of our children and their families.

Our staff will use system leadership to continue to provide an exceptional curriculum. Further promoting the aspirations of our children by using real world experiences that promote careers and enterprise through STEAM Street.

How will developments impact our families?

Our families will have the opportunity to share in celebrations of other cultures.

Our families will know more about how feedback effects the learning of their child.

Our families will be further supported to develop love for reading with their child including strategies to support their child's love of books.

Families have more information about how subjects enrich their child's curriculum

How will developments impact our children?

Our children will have the opportunity to take part in local and international projects that allow them to learn about other communities other than those in school.

Our children will benefit from their teachers knowing the best ways to feedback on their work.

Our children will develop a love for reading and be exposed to new vocabulary that further immerses them in their learning.

How will developments impact our staff team?

Our staff will be equipped to promote the modern world to the pupils that they teach. Enhancing their experience of a wide range of communities

Our staff will ensure that our children and their families are informed about the benefit of feedback for their children and how this can be use in home learning.

Our staff will be equipped to further enhance reading and oracy through the established immersive curriculum

Leadership and Management: To apply inspirational, visionary and exceptionally strong leadership and governance through every individual that ensures we to look up and out in recognising our responsibility for pupils and staff across all the Trust schools and beyond in order to continually improve the wider education system.

Quality of Education: To deliver exceptional learning and teaching opportunities for the whole community by engaging the business world to enhance the curriculum offer.

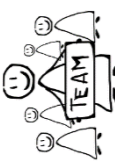

How will developments impact our staff team?

Our staff have the skills to promote further physical activity during social times.

Our staff contribute to the Abbey Promises to allow our children increased extracurricular experiences.

Our staff work across the school and the MAT to share best practice.

Our staff share the values of the housing system and model the importance of community

How will developments impact our children?

Our children have increased opportunities for physical activity during social times

Our children have increased opportunities to take part in after school activities

Our children have further skills to regulate their behaviour

Our children are proud to be part of the Lion Leader Housing system and work towards awards relating to this.

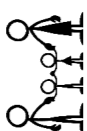

How will developments impact our families?

Our families are informed about the importance of physical activity.

Our families have the Abbey promise that follows their child through school and allows further opportunities to develop behaviour and attitudes.

Our families have confidence in dealing with their child behaviour at home.

Our families know how the school house system impacts on their child.

Behaviour and Attitudes: The behaviour and attitudes judgement consider how leaders and staff create a safe, calm, orderly and positive environment in the school and the impact this has on the behaviour and attitudes of the pupils

Personal Development: To provide an engaging personalised learning environment with a culture of acceptance for all that meets the continued wellbeing needs of our pupils and staff.

How will developments impact our families?

Our families know that their child's personal development is at the heart of the school's curriculum

Our families will be signposted to easily accessible information and have opportunity to attend workshops and family events.

Our families are informed about how their child communicates in school, this includes how they are working with their peers locally an internationally.

How will developments impact our children?

Our children's curriculum provides meaningful opportunities for them to progress with their personal development.

Our children's families can be an active part in school life.

Our children are empowered to develop their methods of communication

Our children have the opportunity to debate and discuss local and international events through joint projects

How will developments impact our staff team?

Our staff team will promote personal development of our pupils through British Values, big questions and current affairs.

Our staff create further opportunities for families to learn and grow personally

Our staff create a communication promise for our children to feel empowered.

Our staff create opportunity to work with other settings both locally and internationally

WAVEE: To exist as a centre of excellence for learning that through relationships instills sense of belonging, ambition and pride.

How will developments impact our families?

Our families have a sixth form offer that is personalised and allows their children a clear path to their next steps

Our families are informed about the work the employment and training opportunities available to their child

Careers education builds on the skills and projects that children are undertaking and how this prepares their child for their next steps.

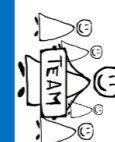

How will developments impact our children?

Children attending our sixth form have a curriculum that meets their needs and shows their pathway to adulthood.

Our children have immersive work experiences.

Our children understand their progression of skills to for employment and adulthood

How will developments impact our staff team?

Our staff are stretched and challenged in their practice and CPD to deliver personalised pathways for children

Our staff work with employers to deliver the skills, attributes and attitudes to prepare for adulthood and next steps.

Our staff are given the skills to enhance the delivery of the careers and enterprise curriculum